THE IMPACT OF THE →
PROGRAM HAS UNDOUBTEDLY ALTERED MY PATH IN LIFE.

“I lived in Transitional Housing almost twenty-one years ago at the age of seventeen. The impact of the program has undoubtedly altered my path in life. The continued support and encouragement from the staff that helped me are things I remember today and those memories are what I often use as motivation and strength when times get rough. I have climbed many mountains in the past twenty years but here I am today. A mom of three, just graduated college, and am now working in the community connecting with people just like me years ago. Thank you to Youth Impact and Transitional Housing for everything you have done for me.”

Exploring Youth Impact Country

Getting outside one's comfort zone is one of those catch phrases that has been used a great deal and it feels somewhat burdensome, uncomfortable by definition, and downright scary for many. But what if we repackage this same concept into expanding our comfort zones? Totally different right? Now it sounds appealing, inviting, and heart-stirringly exciting. Expanding our comfort zones is growth in disguise. It is pushing beyond limits and becoming better versions of ourselves. It is having a constructive discontent with what is and pursuing what could be.

One of Youth Impact's core convictions is that the essence of quality is constant improvement. The organization embraces this concept at every level. The Board of Directors, Management Team, and front-line caregivers of Youth Impact believe that every young person deserves the right to make their life a better one. Understanding the why of what we do every day makes the how of what we do so much easier because of the passion and value it inspires.

Expanding comfort zones applies equally to Youth Impact's secret weapon which is its staff team of 277 individual team members. Our staff team is the personification of Youth Impact.

By investing in the growth and development of our staff team the organization reaches into new territory. It is never trespassing to go beyond our own boundaries and by doing so we become more than we were. What was hard becomes easier and what was elusive becomes within our grasp.

When I think of what I call Youth Impact country I think of physical presence and diversity of service offering. In 2023 – 2024 the organization opened a Respite Resource in Saint John for children living with intellectual or physical disabilities who are residing with adoption families as well as other child and youth programs within Social Development. All in the same moment the agency expanded its physical presence, grew its staff team, extended its reach in its continuum of service offering, and redefined its age range to children as young as two years old going up to youth age twenty-five to be in line with the new legislation. In the coming fiscal year, the agency will establish a new service in Charlotte County which will give Youth Impact a physical presence in eight New Brunswick communities. Expanding comfort zones to become more than we are, has no downside and almost unlimited upside. I wish this for all of our stakeholders and thank them for being part of the Youth Impact experience.

At-risk defined

Simply put, it means “at-risk” of not becoming a healthy and productive adult. An at-risk youth is threatened by various factors that inhibit learning, impede adjustment, and impair judgment, making it more likely that they will make choices that result in further marginalization, often with dire short and long-term consequences.

YOUTH FEEDBACK

"This year, I graduated from the Impact Learning Centre after 6 years of pulling myself through rough patches and things I never thought I would face. I finally managed to make my goal a reality. The teacher has my highest respect, he has changed me for the better, taught me so much not just the curriculum but made sure I was doing my best and had any help I needed."

- William - 23

"Youth QUEST Central has been like a second home, whether it was coming in for food or mental health support. With their services and guidance, I worked at Hopewell Rocks last summer and it was amazing. I would NOT have been able to do it without them."

- Oliver - 22

"QUEST Case Management has been a great help with resumes, cover letters, and has given me the strength to put myself out there. Now that I have aged out, I am looking forward to giving back by volunteering at the centre."

- Paul, 25

"The Drug Intervention Program taught me the difference between drug addiction and poor decisions, to manage my anger better, and better coping skills. Think before you act, say, or do. I learned to be honest and put myself in others' shoes."

- Steven - 19

ABOUT US

Our Mission

Youth Impact Jeunesse Inc. helps young people succeed by providing support and new opportunities.

Vision Statement

The Maritimes' leading organization in growing successful people.

Our Mandate

The purpose of Youth Impact Jeunesse Inc. is to provide quality care and guidance to children and youth between two and twenty-five years of age, with social, emotional, and behavioural challenges.

The goal is to help youth and their families reduce or eliminate the conditions that have acted as obstacles to their success. Services are offered within an integrated multi-component continuum of care, which ranges from preventative community services, in-home family support, and highly structured residential treatment programs, to less structured transitional housing.

When I first arrived at the Main Street Home, I was scared and sad. Now I'm feeling comfortable and happier and there's always good food here. My favorite part about being here is playing games with others. I enjoy living with different kids and playing with them. I feel safe here. - Alisha - 9

Seeking Value-Added Change

President's Report

Youth Impact is always looking at pushing out the front edges of its mission statement to better meet the evolving needs of young New Brunswickers and their families. This year has been another year of diversification and expansion. Doing things better extends beyond growing larger and creating additional opportunities. It also involves taking a good look at what we are already doing as an organization and seeking value-added change.

During the last fiscal year, a committee composed of members of the Management Team completed a detailed four-year review of the Operational Policy Manual. This process took several months and then the Executive Director spent significant time working with the committee chair to further fine-tune these policies to ensure they were accurate, in compliance with all government regulations, and that the language reflected a strength-based, person-centered, trauma-informed approach. The Board of Directors ratified all updates to these policies at the end of 2023.

As part of good governance and in line with best practices as recommended by the Canadian Centre for Accreditation, the Board underwent an introspective exercise. After some discussion within the Board, the Executive Committee designed a Board member survey questionnaire which was circulated prior to Christmas. There was 100% engagement from all Directors. In March a Board Retreat was held to review the survey summary report. Several recommendations emerged related to the mechanics of Board meetings and how to make the best use of the Board's time as well as a discussion on Board member recruitment practices. I want to thank all Board members for their contributions to this exercise.

In the fall the Board did adopt cyber insurance as part of the organization's coverage protection. At the end of the fiscal year job postings went out for a newly created position of Assistant Manager that will impact all of the residential programs except Transitional Housing. This important step will assist the agency with succession planning, quality control, improved supervision, enhanced service delivery, and greater accountability.

Finally, I want to extend my appreciation to my fellow Board members for volunteering their time and expertise, to the staff and Management Team for their hard work and dedication, and to our government partners and donors for the continued confidence you show in the good work of Youth Impact.

THEM

“Social Development and Youth Impact Jeunesse have continued to work in close partnership with our children and youth in care in the Southwest Zone. I want to acknowledge the work and commitment of the teams in each of the Youth Impact resources as we cannot do this work without them. I am also very pleased to share the news regarding the opening of the new Dever Road Respite Resource. This five-bed home is located on Saint John’s West side. The Dever Road team offers care and support to families by providing a short-term, much-needed break for parents as well as a safe, nurturing environment for children with disabilities. This resource will have a tremendous impact by supporting many families in the Family Supports for Children with Disabilities (FSCD) program, Adoption program as well as other Child and Youth programs within Social Development.”
